Product Description

Features

Two-Stage Filter System - The two-stage filter system traps both coarse and fine debris particles.

Removable Dust Container - Easily remove the dust container to empty the collection container, change filters, or clean the inside of the unit.

Sealing Flap - A sealing flap keeps vacuumed dirt and debris where it belongs—inside the container.

Lightweight, Compact Vacuum - Features a lightweight and compact design.

Power Hold Button - With a power hold button, users do not have to hold down the throttle trigger to operate—just lock on and go.

Hanging Slot - The hanging slot offers an easy way to store.

Crevice Nozzle - The floor/crevice attachment enables vacuuming in narrow spaces that are typically unreachable with regular nozzles. The attachment can be stored in the vacuum's carrying bag, making it easily available for use any time users need it.

Onboard LED Indicator - Users know how much battery life they have thanks to an LED indicator.

The battery-powered SEA 20 handheld vacuum brings the power and performance you know and trust from STIHL to cleanup tasks around the home. With a variety of attachment accessories from a hose extender to a crevice nozzle, the SEA 20 battery vacuum cleaner can take on cleaning tasks in hard-to-reach areas. Weighing just under three pounds with battery, this lightweight, quiet vacuum is easy to maneuver in tight spaces around the house, plus a rubberized grip makes it comfortable to hold while you work. A two-stage filter and sealing flap help keep the dirt and debris inside the unit and not floating in the air or escaping out the side of the collection container. The removable container makes emptying dirt and debris quick and easy. The unit also includes a carrying bag to keep all your accessories in one place, and an onboard hanging slot allows you to store the SEA 20 out of the way on the wall. Make quick work of your cleanup tasks around the house with the versatile STIHL SEA 20 handheld vacuum.
